

Eppes Essen

We are a New York, Jewish-Style Deli & Restaurant offering home-style cooking. Our menu is filled with dozens of sandwiches, including beloved Kippered Salmon, White Fish and Sturgeon. We specialize in Corn Beef, Matzo Ball Soup, Pastrami, and all sorts of classic deli specialties, such as Stuffed Derma, Blintzes, and Kasha Varnishka. We are known to have the best quality meats in town probably because we acquire only the best beef and poultry that money can buy. Everything on our menu is homemade and prepared in house. We can make anything and everything “made to order”.

The restaurant has comfortable seating for more than 150 people with table service, as well as a separate room for private parties or banquets. We can cater a special banquet party event for you, your family or for your business. You can call ahead and virtually order anything on our menu and it’ll be ready for pick up when you arrive.

At our store, you will find an attractive line of chocolates and sweets. Our line of sweets are considered the absolute best in the world. We carry rugelach, cookies, butter crunch, chocolate grahams, chocolate pretzels, chocolate marshmallows, chocolate bark, mini black and white cookies, jelly rings and brownies.

We are proud to say we have received many compliments from our customers. Our customers have been known to say, “I like the food, the atmosphere, and the service.” Some have said that they like our home-style Jewish cuisine. Others have told us that their favorite items are “the special-recipe Russian dressing, the sweet and sour cabbage, and the awesome roast beef & brisket.” One of the most ordered menu items are the Sloppy Joes. Eppes Essen was established in 1956 as a New York, Jewish-Style Deli & Restaurant in Newark, New Jersey. Later, in 1960, we moved to Orange, New Jersey. And finally, we made our current home in Livingston, New Jersey.

With over 49 years of restaurant & deli experience, we are proud to continue to serve our patrons by providing the utmost quality of service, a clean dining environment, and superb home-style cuisine and ethnic foods.

Thanks to our patrons, and we hope to be seeing you soon enjoying your dining experience with your family, relatives, associates, and friends!
